

Shane Cobalt started his magic career in Toronto, Canada. As a young man he would often spend his days studying the books in the local magic shop, The Browser's Den of Magic. As years passed rumors started to spread of a Canadian magician who was doing material from Erdnase extremely well. Shane's card work was circling the underground of magic. In 2010 Shane worked with Jeff Pinsky to put on "The Zarrow Shuffle Workshop" A groundbreaking full day of exploring one of the most notorious false shuffles in the world!

Shane received the Len Cooper Memorial Award 2005 as Toronto's Most Promising Young Magician. Following this he was the first recipient of the Tony Eng Youth Award in 2008 receiving the top prize.

Since then Shane has gone on to be a magic consultant for David Blaine, curate part of David Copperfield's private museum, and perform all over the world including at the world famous Magic Castle.
